The usual over-flowing crowd attended the chautauqua entertainment on the Central school grounds last night and today. Tomorrow, being the final day, the holders of season tickets and others too, are anxious now to get in on the last of the entertainments.

The Cambridge Players and Ross Crane amused and entertained and instructed the hundreds last night.
Those who stayed away for fear that the entertainment would be "dry," missed one of the best entertainments of the entire seven days.

First the Cambridge Players put on a one-act interpretation of Barrie's
"Twelve Pound Look," a drama comedy. This was followed by an act from "The Milliner's Bill," also a com-the price of admission. Those who have seen the Kaffir boys and Balmer

2 SHIPS TO MEXICO

U. S. HURRIES CRUISERS TO VERA CRUZ AS PROTECTION.

CAPITAL IN A TUMULT

Mexico City Falls and Refalls Daily
While Populace Starves—Say
Villa Would Accede to Terms

Washington, Aug. 11.—Two American battleships, the Louisiana and the New Hampshire sailed from New port R. I. for Vera Cruz in response to an urgent request from Commander McNamee that his little fleet of gun-boats in Mexican waters be reinforced in view of anti-foreign demonstrations at Carranza's capital.

It is understood that President Wilson himself ordered the warships sent, although no official of the government would even admit that they had sailed.

Care had been taken during the day to point out that any naval or military activity at this time would be purely precautionary to safeguard for alien interests and could not be considered as having any connection with the Pan-American conference which is to be resumed in New York today to complete program for bringing about a restoration of government in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO
FALLS AND FALLS

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—During two-ty-four hours this capital has seen three changes of government. Shortly after the noon hour the inhabitants were startled by the precipitate evacuation of the Zapata army before an invisible enemy. Two hours later the Villa contingent of the former arma-ny entered the city and street fighting ensued with the invading Carranza forces. At 5 o'clock the firing ceased. Offices and stores were opened and the occupants emerged to learn that the city had been captured by Captain Sanchez and twenty men of Carranza's army. It is estimated that 2,500 Zapata soldiers fled before this force, believing it to be much larger. Sanchez installed himself in the National palace and the Red Cross ambulance gathered up the dead and wounded, numbering eleven, all of whom were civilians. The city had settled down to the first breathing spell of the day when the Zapata troops, learning that they had been routed by a force of twenty men, returned. Sanchez, with his Carranza forces, thereupon evacuated the palace, which was taken possession of by General Castillo, who occupied it during the night. Castillo, when morning broke, left the palace because of a remored approach of hostile forces, and General Albarra a Villa follower occupied the government offices. Towards noon heavy firing on several streets leading to the palace announced the second approach of Carranza men. This firing lasted all forenoon and when it ceased the inhabitants were in doubt as to whether the forces of Villa, Zapata or Carranza held the capital of the republic.

SCOTT'S MIS ON SUCCEEDS

Villa Will Restore Confiscated Goods to Foreign Merchants

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 11.—General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, has accomplished his mission to the border. The following statement was given out:
"General Villa assured me during our interview that the proposed meeting of mining men will be postponed indefinitely. The foreign merchandise seized at Chihuahua last week will be restored to its owners. Violations of the law, however, will be prosecuted in the civil courts. My mission here is now accomplished."

People Starving in Mexico City.

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—Eight deaths by starvation, all children, were reported by the police station of the Second ward. The general hospital also reported deaths by starvation though the number was not made public.

DEFER DRAINAGE BOARD MEET

Conference to Discuss Resumption of Dredge Work on 102 Will Be Held Saturday.

The special meeting of the 102 river drainage district board, to have been held at the court house here this morning, has been postponed until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon on account of members of the board being now busy haying and otherwise engaged in urgent farm work.

The express purpose of the meeting is to determine what means can best be used in arighting and repairing the dredge boat, recently overturned and damaged by the flood waters. The owners of the dredge boat—the Marion Steam Shovel Company of Marion, O., —will probably be asked to pay all or part of the costs of repairing the dredge.

the tourney may employ more than three players, not regularly connected with the team.

This will allow the Federals to main-gage any more outside aid or at least

The prizes offered are as follows:

fourth $50. The umpire for the games has not yet been announced, but Keck of this city, may be engaged for some of the games.

There will be a total of six games played, two each day being scheduled.

The first day, the teams will draw lots to see which teams each shall contest with. On the second day the two winning teams will clash, and the two losing teams will contest.

If any ties result such ties will probably be played off the fourth day or August 21.

The tournament is expected to draw large crowds from over the entire county and southern Iowa, as the four teams contesting, are considered the strongest in this county and Taylor county, Iowa.

SEE THE METEORIC SHOWERS

No, Then Look Again Tonight to Witness Shooting Stars.

It didn't rain moisture last night in Maryville, but it did rain something not quite so plentiful and less often seen. For both Monday night and last night, a meteoric display could be plainly observed in the skies at several periods in the night.

The meteors are caused by the interception of the sun's orbit by that of the earth, the sun having been in total eclipse of the earth yesterday in the lower eastern hemisphere.

The shower of meteors is scheduled to continue tonight though in a less marked degree.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, is suffering with a severe case of blood poisoning caused by a sprained

The little girl fell about ten days fall and injury burst a vein and the infection resulted from the congestion.

Yesterday the child underwent an operation. Her condition is serious.

LOCAL BAND TO CLARINDA

at Fair August 25-26—Promise
Art Smith, Aviator.

The Fourth Regiment band of Maryat the Clarinda, Iowa, fair which be-and 26.

The biggest attraction promised at the Clarinda fair, is aerial flights and spectacular stunts by Art Smith, who comes from the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, where he has been giving aerial exhibitions.

The Clarinda fair is affiliated with the local Nodaway county fair in what is known as the "short ship" circuit.
It also includes Omaha, Bedford, Cor-

FAIR TO HELP CLUB WOMEN

Manager Offers Percentage of Day's Gate Receipts to Support of Rest Room.

The managers of the county fair have inaugurated a "rest room" day during fair week from August 30 to September 4, and on that day will give a percentage of the gate receipts to the Federation of Women's club, to be used in the maintenance of the women's public rest rooms.

The day has not yet been designated but it will probably be either Monday or Tuesday. A special campaign will be made by the women of the city for attendance on that day and every effort made to swell the fund which has been tendered them by the fair managers.

The salary of the rest room matron is being paid by the club women of the city and the money received at the fair will be used for that purpose.
This matter will be taken up by the county court next year but until that time, the club women have assumed the expense.

The women have paid the entire upkeep of the room since they were opened in August, 1914, and also fur-

Mrs. Ed G. Orcar and Mrs. G. H.
Colbert are the publicity committee for "rest room" day.

According to a late news item, Gov. Major is taking another vacation at French Lick Springs, Indiana.

The war is now costing $30,000 a minute. If you have a mathematical turn of mind, you can figure out what the cost will be for another year.

Judge Landis is one federal judge who does things according to what he believes the case justifies regardless of precedents, etiquette or the station of the parties affected.

In the old days the Platte Purchase played a prominent part in the affairs of the state and nation. It furnished governors, United States senators, federal judges and various other officials. Judge Atchison of Platte county, as president pro tem of the United States Senate, was President of the United States for one day. Of late years other sections of the state seem to have been more aggressive in politics or to have co-operated to better advantage and have shaken down the big plums. It is getting about time for Northwest Missouri to make herself felt again.

One reason offered for a raise in passenger rates on railroads is that the companies have lost money on the dining car service. As a rule the man who patronizes the diner feels that he could start a restaurant with the price of a meal, yet they may be losing money. But do the ninety and nine passengers who do not patronize the diner want to be assessed for the benefit of the one who does?

BUTTERMILK IS A SAFE DRINK.

Medical Experts Advise Use of Fermented Milk—Is Not Bacteria Carrier.

The popularity of buttermilk as a food and a beverage is attested by its widespread sale. Any drink which can succeed in invading the precincts of the saloon and compete for sale, as buttermilk now does, side by side with alcoholic beverages deserves attention. The plan of allowing milk to undergo fermentation of such a character that the products are not unpleasant or unwholesome for human consumption, yet serve as preservatives to prevent undesirable types of decomposition, is not new. The fermentation product chiefly depended on in such cases is lactic acid, although, in certain types, alcoholic fermentation may also be in evidence.

Buttermilk belongs to the acid type; it usually contains from 0.6 to 0.9 per cent of acid. Strictly speaking, buttermilk is a by-product of butter-making; but with the development of the milk industries, the demand for buttermilk has frequently been met by fermenting the skim or separator milk which remains as a by-product of the cream trade. The fermented product is not literally buttermilk, but it may be indistinguishable from the latter in composition and properties.

The use of these fermented milk products has been favored, not alone for their intrinsic food value, but also for accessory reasons. The specific fermentation products have been reputed to have a "tonic" action in the digestive tract. Special virtues have been attributed to the lactic acid bacteria, particularly in relation to putrefactive changes in the alimentary tract.

Aside from any alleged therapeutic virtues, there can be no doubt of the nutrient value of the beverages. With the growing attention devoted to the bacteria which milk may harbor, and the recognition of the dangers which they may entail, it is not strange that buttermilk also should demand bacteriologic consideration. Heinemann, of the Department of Bacteriology and Hygiene at the University of Chicago, has demonstrated that the presence of lactic acid in milk will destroy the germs of dysentery, typhoid, diphtheria and cholera.

The slower milk sours, the greater is the danger of disease germs surviving. Acids other than lactic acid are frequently present in buttermilk. This beverage, Heinemann reminds us, should therefore be looked on with suspicion, especially is heavily polluted, unless it has been prepared from pasteurized milk. There is, however, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, a remnant of satisfaction to all lovers of the fermented product to learn that the chances of buttermilk becoming a carrier of infection are small.

John Hunt of Rock Port and Warren B. Rogers of St. Joseph, both attorneys, came to Maryville yesterday to confer with Circuit Judge W. C. Ellison, relative to a litigation in Atchison county courts.

Southerner to Discuss Race Question

SENATOR JAMES K. VARDAMAN.

SENATOR JAMES K. VARDAMAN will speak at Chautauqua on the American race problem. Perhaps no living man has given this subject more careful consideration. His residence in the far south thrust the question upon him and afforded him most excellent opportunities for getting at the facts. He is also a student and has exhausted literature in prosecuting his inquiries. He is a man of deep convictions. He has a fine voice and a forcible delivery and delivers sledgehammer blows in support of his position.

THE PALM BEACH SUIT.

"Ye who listen with credulity to the whispers of fancy, and pursue with eagerness the phantoms of hope—who expect that age will perform the promises of youth, and that the deficiencies of the present day will be supplied by the morrow—attend to the history of Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia." So wrote the Jovian pen of Dr. Samuel Johnson nearly two centuries ago. Now let the owner of a Palm Beach suit apply this philosophy of utility to his own case.

The Palm Beach suit was born of a great masculine desire. If it was not calculated to fill an aching void, it was designed to supply the omissions of a long felt want. It was a pressing want, with the accent on the pressing, and too often on the want. Ever since troglodytic man emerged from savagery and cultivated a taste for clothes, he has striven ever onward and upward toward an elusive goal. His first covering of sabertooth tiger skin was supplanted in time by tanned deer pelts, and in the process of sartorial evolution he progressed through many transformations until he reached the zenith of outward glory at the sybaritic court of the first Napoleon. Here in the fluffiest of ruffles and the creamiest of laces he daintily wafted a puff of snuff to his delicate nostrils with an exquisite grace not remotely suggesting the more primitive feat of eating green corn on the cob.

But man did not want to be beautiful. He wanted to be comfortable. In matters of dress he kept on evolving, changing, searching and yearning. And in this great desire he not only listened "with credulity to the whispers of fancy" but he pursued "with eagerness the phantoms of hope," and always expecting that at the turn of the road he would find the "deficiencies of the present day would be supplied by the morrow." Improvements came gradually. Along the highway of man's clothing aspirations are strewn the wreckage of tunics, jack boots, ruffs, gauntlets, woolen socks, starched shirts and many other discarded things. We trace the unending progress of comfort. In recent years progress has been more rapid. At last, after eons of thralldom to the hard, hot and unyielding fabrics which convention has decreed for summer covering, the seeker raised his eyes and beheld the apotheosis of his dreams—the Palm Beach suit!

There have been other uncertain experiments with sheer fabrics for masculine outer garments. There have been tentative but futile efforts to entice men with linen suits and the "seersucker" of unlamented memory. And though these efforts failed they were not without purpose, for they were leading up to the ultimate vestment. The Palm Beach suit came into sudden and surprising effluence. Out of the dull and prosaic packings of the merchants there burst a myriad of cool, enticing, satisfying Palm Beach creations transforming men into giddy butterflies burbling as it were from a single chrysalis.

The Palm Beach is not perfection,

but it marks a mighty step toward the attainment of masculine comfort in warm weather. At best, in this erratic climate, it can serve only as an auxiliary resource. He who temers the wind to the shorn lamb considered not the precarious position of the man in the Palm Beach. It requires constant and unremitting attention, and the wearer is never free from heavy and depressing anxieties lest a passing automobile defile the corruscating perfection of his apparel, or that the feverish child in the next car seat drop an all-day sucker on an immaculate knee. Best of all, perhaps, is the fact that the Palm Beach is so cheap the wearer may hope to pay for it before it is worn out. And that, after all, is the great, central thought.—Kansas City Journal.

Kansas Produces Much Coal.

The production of coal in Kansas in 1914 amounted to 6,824,068 short tons, according to a statement just made public by the United States Geological Survey, with a value at the mines of $11,181,687. This is a decrease of 5 per cent in value from the output of 1913. In other respects, however, the year is reported to have been satisfactory to the coal men, no serious strikes or flooding of pits having interfered with coal mining in the state during the year.

Some improvement in the dangerous practice of shooting from the solid is shown for Kansas, the coal mined by this method in 1914 being 77.3 per cent of the total output as compared with 89.5 per cent in 1913. The coal reported as mined by hand was 1,127,523 tons.

Not much progress was made in the state in machine mining, the quantity of coal so produced in 1914 having been less than 40,000 tons. A small percentage of the product (21,295 tons) was washed, yielding 16,236 tons of cleaned coal and 5,069 tons of refuse.

The number of men employed in the coal mines of Kansas in 1914 was 12,413, and they worked an average of 191 days, against 12,479 men for an average of 197 days in 1913. The average production per man in 1914 was 550 tons and 2.88 tons for each working day.

The Bureau of Mines reported 31 fatal accidents in Kansas in 1914, as compared with 28 in 1913.

Many of the smaller city schools are adopting progressive measures in advance of the larger city systems. Hays City, Kan., has a free dental clinic, free medical inspection, social center, community music, supervised playgrounds, and organized athletics. State and municipality have gone in partnership in Hays City; the entire city-school system has been turned over to the Fort Hays Kansas state normal school for use as a "pedagogical laboratory."

The Missouri River.

The Missouri river proper is formed in southwestern Montana by the junction of three strong mountain streams which were discovered by Lewis and Clark in 1906 and were named by them Jefferson, Madison and Gallatin rivers. Of these three Jefferson river drains the largest area and is considered the continuation of the main stream.

Western Montana is mountainous and affords many excellent water-power sites. Among the principal tributaries of the Missouri are the Marias, Musselshell, Yellowstone, Cheyenne, Platte and Kansas. The western part of the basin is in the arid belt and the eastern part is in the semiarid and humid regions.

Ten states of the Union are drained in part by Missouri river. Rising at the Red Rock Lakes, at an elevation of 6,700 feet above sea level, the Missouri descends through the Rocky Mountains and emerges onto the broad prairie lands a few miles below the city of Great Falls, Mont.

Within 10 miles of Great Falls there are five great drops of the river and an aggregate fall of 612 feet. From this point it is accounted a navigable stream with an easy grade, and in passing through the Dakotas and along the borders of Nebraska, Kansas, and Iowa it receives the flow of great tributaries so that as it crosses the State of Missouri and joins the Mississippi a short distance above St. Louis it becomes one of the large rivers of the world. Its total drainage area is about 492,000 square miles in extent.

SOUTH AFRICA IS LAND OF PROMISE

British See Great Possibilities In Immense Territory.

MINERAL RESOURCES RICH.

Diamond Fields Form Treasure House and Big Quantities of Precious "Stones of Fire" Still Lie In Sands of Namib—Copper and Copper Ores In Increasing Quantities.

Cape Town, South Africa.—Much speculation has been indulged in as to the value as a possession of the immense territory of German southwest Africa, wrested by the Union of South Africa forces, under General Botha, from the Germans, who had occupied it since May, 1883. Six times the size of England, being about 322,450 square miles in area and including Ovamboland, Damaraaland and Great Namaqualand and sparsely populated, it has been described as a wilderness, with a fertile tract only here and there.

A South African authority described recently in the Cape Times its dominant physical features as follows: "A slowly rising, sandy coast belt; a high interior plateau, broken by isolated mountain ranges and stony kopjes, and a gently falling eastern strip of sandy country which merges in the level expanse of the Kalahari desert. The average height of the uplands is about 5,000 feet. The climate on the whole is healthful and eminently suited for Europeans, though malarial fever is prevalent in the subtropical north. Before the war it supported a white population of 14,830 people, with some 250,000 natives."

The territory's three great natural sources of wealth are minerals, pasture land and agricultural land. Says the authority above quoted: "The mineral wealth has been the most considerable source of prosperity since 1908, and it is certain to be an important factor in the future development of the country. The diamond fields form a rich treasure house, and immense quantities of the precious "stones of fire" still lie in the sands of the Namib. The fields extend from Conception bay (100 miles south of Swakopmund) to Angora Juntas, a distance of about 200 miles, but they are intersected in many places by hills and ridges and tracts of worthless sand. The various producing companies, the great majority of which are German, hold a fifty years' lease from the German Colonial company, and together before the war broke out they employed about 5,000 natives and colored men. From 1908 to the end of 1913 gems to the value of $35,522,000 had been recovered.

"How long will these fields last? The experts differ, as owing to the vast extent of the country over which the diamondiferous gravel is scattered and the varying depths of the deposits it is extremely difficult to estimate the life of the fields. The period has been variously put at eight, fifteen and twenty years. New deposits may be discovered, although extensive prospecting operations have not resulted in any finds for some time. Volcanic "pipes" containing the well known Kimberlite have been found in the Gibeon, Bethany and Keetmanshoop districts, but careful tests have shown them to be barren of diamonds."

Next to the diamond fields the copper mines rank in importance. The value of the copper exported in 1913 was $1,982,180. In the opinion of experts there is no doubt that the country will supply copper and copper ores in increasing quantities for many years to come.

Prospecting work has been done in connection with gold, tin, iron, lead, sulphur, etc., but the results have been somewhat disappointing, although immense deposits of iron and tin ores are known to exist. A seam of coal has been found, and the Germans had begun to exploit immense layers of white and colored marble of excellent quality.

The second source of wealth in the territory is the pasture land. Dr. William Macdonald, the South African agricultural expert, who visited the colony a couple of years ago, described it as a land of enormous agricultural possibilities, destined to become one of the finest ranch countries in the world.

LAUNCH BIG BLOW AGAINST TURKS

Allies Make Concerted Effort to Force Dardanelles.

SUCCESSES ARE REPORTED.

News For Some Time From Peninsula Has Been Growing More Cheering to England—Only Way to Rescue Hard-Pressed Russians.

London, Aug. 11.—The commencement of new and greater efforts to force the Dardanelles and thus bring succor to the Russians, who are still being hard pressed by the Austro-Germans in eastern Poland and the Baltic provinces, and at the same time to influence the Balkan states, is a feature of the war news.

For some time the news from the Dardanelles from the British standpoint has been more cheerful. While no details of the operations there have been given out, the public has been allowed to learn that the hope for a successful issue in the fighting on the Turkish peninsula was brighter.

A Concerted Attempt.
The renewed attempt against the Turkish positions which apparently is in full swing, seems to be a concerted one. Attacks are being made at the tip of the peninsula, along the Gallipoli road, where a gain of 200 yards on a front of 300 yards has been made and at Sari Bair, where an important crest has been occupied, according to General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander in chief of the British forces.

"Elsewhere" General Hamilton's report continues: "A fresh landing has been successfully effected and considerable progress made." This landing evidently was a surprise to the Turks, as 630 prisoners, a number of guns and a quantity of material are declared to have been taken by the British forces.

Lomza Taken by Teuton Invaders.
Except in the region of Riga, where the Germans evidently have been checked, the German and Austrian hosts are still moving forward against the Russians in their efforts to drive them from the Baltic provinces and Poland.

Their progress is not being made unhindered, however, for the Muscovites continue to fight them valiantly at various points in rear guard battles. Lomza, the Russian stronghold on the Narva, in the government of Lomza, has been captured, the fortress of Kovno is being threatened and Vilna, capital of the government of the same name and which lies some 225 miles northeast of Warsaw, is being evacuated by the civilian population.

Sir John French, commander in chief of the British forces in France and Belgium, in a report given out by the official press bureau, says the British troops have slightly withdrawn from their line south of Hooze, near Ypres, but have consolidated the village of Hooze.

ZEPPELINS KILL NINE WOMEN

Squadron of German Airships Make Raid on British Coast.

London, Aug. 11.—The official press bureau issued the following statement: "A squadron of hostile airships visited the east coast between the hours of 8:30 p. m. and 12:30 a. m. Some fires were caused by the dropping of incendiary bombs, but these were quickly extinguished.

"The following casualties have been reported: Killed, one man, nine women and four children; wounded, five men, seven women and two children. "One Zeppelin was seriously damaged by the gunfire of the land defenses and was reported being towed into Ostend. It has since been subjected to continued attacks by aircraft from Dunkirk and has been under heavy fire and it is now reported that after having its back broken and its rear compartment damaged it was completely destroyed by the explosion.

"The night was extremely dark and was accompanied by thick fog in places, which rendered night flying by aeroplane very difficult. It is regretted that flight Sublieutenant R. Lord, which was one of the pilots sent up to engage the enemy, was killed on landing in the dark."

AMERICA REJECTS AUSTRIA'S VIEWS

Declares Neutrality Not Violated by Arms Trade.

INSISTS ON RIGHT TO SHIP

United States Sends Note to Vienna—Ambassador Penfield Will Probably Present it to Foreign Office Tomorrow—Couches in Friendly Tone.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The United States government dispatched to Vienna a reply rejecting the Austro-Hungarian views recently set forth in a note contending that the great scale on which war munitions are being exported from America to enemies of the Germanic allies "is not in consonance with the definition of neutrality."

The note was cabled to Ambassador Penfield, who probably will present it to the Vienna foreign office tomorrow. Though framed in diplomatic language and entirely friendly in tone, the reply is understood to repudiate flatly the suggestion that the United States has permitted violations of neutrality and rests firmly upon the right of American exporters to send war supplies to belligerents able to purchase and receive them.

The United States always has held that this is an unquestioned right under international law and high officials have pointed out that to prevent such shipments to one country because another was not in a position to receive them would be in itself a violation of neutrality. Precedents also have been recalled where in previous wars Germany and Austria imported arms extensively.

The Austro-Hungarian note, handed to Ambassador Penfield on June 29, was a lengthy document, setting forth the views of that government and suggesting that the United States might redress the state of things complained of by informing the enemies of Austria-Hungary that the supply of food stuffs and war material to them would be suspended unless legitimate trade in these articles between America and neutral countries were permitted.

According to Berlin dispatches, this complaint was sent after a conference between the Austro-Hungarian and German foreign offices. Similar notes to the United States by Germany and Turkey.

One Battleship to Vera Cruz.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Secretary Lansing announced that only one war ship would be sent to Vera Cruz and that it was going to relieve whatever ship is used for transportation of the Brazilian and Guatemalan ministers. Secretary Lansing denied flatly that military or naval expeditions were being prepared.

Pennsylvania Increases Output.

The output of petroleum in Pennsylvania in 1914, which amounted to 8,170,335 barrels, registered an increase of 253,033 barrels over the state's production in 1913, according to a statement just made public by the United States Geological Survey in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Topographic and Geologic Survey Commission. This notable increase comes from a state whose oil production prior to 1913 has shown a fairly steady decline of 5 or 6 per cent a year for 14 years or more.

The market price of petroleum in Pennsylvania averaged $1.906 a barrel at the wells in 1914. Except for 1913 when the yearly average was $2.487, this price exceeds that received for the state's product in any single year since 1877. The value of Pennsylvania's oil production in 1914 amounted to $15,573,822. Although disclosing a net increase of $4,116,680 below the amount received for the 1913 production, this total exceeds the value of any single year's output since 1908.

Pennsylvania has been a consistent and reliable factor in the petroleum industry since 1859.

CHAUTAUQUA IS NEAR THE CLOSE

OUTDOOR LYCEUM ENDS TOMORROW NIGHT WITH BRYAN

PLAYERS AND CRANE AMUSED LAST NIGHT

Cambridge Actors and Clay Modeler and Artist Instruct and Inspire. Talk on Missions This Morning

Wednesday, August 11.
7:30 p. m.—S. Platt Jones in lecture, recital and song stunts.
8:15 p. m.—J. H. Balmer and his Kaffir Boys.

Thursday, August 12.
9:00 a. m.—Junior Chautauqua. Final Jaunt and Roundup.
2:30 p. m.—Popular concert by Sam Schildkret's Orchestra.
3:00 p. m.—Address, "The Impending Crisis," by Senator James K. Vardaman of Mississippi.
7:15 p. m.—Costumed exhibition of children of countries visited by The Junior Chautauqua Bunch.
7:30 p. m.—Sam Schildkret's Hungarian Orchestra.
8:00 p. m.—Address by William Jennings Bryan.

The usual over-flowing crowd attended the chautauqua entertainment on the Central school grounds last night and today. Tomorrow, being the final day, the holders of season tickets and others too, are anxious now to get in on the last of the entertainments.

The Cambridge Players and Ross Crane amused and entertained and instructed the hundreds last night. Those who stayed away for fear that the entertainment would be "dry," missed one of the best entertainments of the entire seven days.

First the Cambridge Players put on a one-act interpretation of Barrie's "Twelve Pound Look," a drama comedy. This was followed by an act from "The Milliner's Bill," also a comedy, though a tragedy to the leading actress of the play, Miss Martha Miller. Miss Laura Bitter, soprano, also was well received as was also Jesse Coffey, who puts philosophy into song and verse.

Crane Not Merely Entertainer.
Ross Crane, in his rapid fire talk, clay molder and crayon artist, followed with an hour's mixed entertainment. His philosophy is fine and all his own and it hits where it should but does not "hurt." His inspiration to the young in clay modeling, drawing and talk, is just as entertaining and helpful, as his work is amusing to the "grown-ups."

The chautauqua opened this morning with the usual entertainment for the children by Miss Frances Knofler, supervisor of the Junior chautauqua. This was followed by an address on "The Economic Value of Missions," by Dr. F. Q. Brown.

Kaffir Boys Tonight.
The afternoon program began with a clever entertainment by S. Platt Jones. He was followed by a speech on "Live or Die," by Byron C. Platt. Tonight Mr. Jones will give the prelude in a combined lecture, recital and song stunt. The five Kaffir boys, under the leadership of their master, J. H. Balmer, will close the entertainment tonight. The closing number alone is said to be worth more than the price of admission. Those who have seen the Kaffir boys and Balmer here before intend to go again.

2 SHIPS TO MEXICO

U. S. HURRIES CRUISERS TO VERA CRUZ AS PROTECTION.

CAPITAL IN A TUMULT

Mexico City Falls and Refalls Daily While Populace Starves—Say Villa Would Accede to Terms

Washington, Aug. 11.—Two American battleships, the Louisiana and the New Hampshire sailed from New York for Vera Cruz in response to an urgent request from Commander McNamara that his little fleet of gunboats in Mexican waters be reinforced in view of anti-foreign demonstrations at Carranza's capital.

It is understood that President Wilson himself ordered the warships sent, although no official of the government would even admit that they had sailed.

Care had been taken during the day to point out that any naval or military activity at this time would be purely precautionary to safeguard for foreign interests and could not be connected in any way with the Pan-American conference, which is to be resumed in New York today to complete program for bringing about a restoration of government in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO FALLS AND FALLS

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—During twenty-four hours this capital has seen three changes of government. Shortly after the noon hour the inhabitants were startled by the precipitate evacuation of the Zapata army before an invisible enemy. Two hours later the Villa contingent of the former army of occupation rallied and street fighting ensued with the invading Carranza forces. At 5 o'clock the firing ceased. Offices and stores were opened and the occupants emerged to learn that the city had been captured by Captain Sanchez and twenty men of Carranza's army. It is estimated that 2,500 Zapata soldiers fled before this force, believing it to be much larger. Sanchez installed himself in the National palace and the Red Cross ambulance gathered up the dead and wounded, numbering eleven, all of whom were civilians. The city had settled down to the first breathing spell of the day when the Zapata troops, learning that they had been routed by a force of twenty men, returned. Sanchez, with his Carranza forces, thereupon evacuated the palace, which was taken possession of by General Castillo, who occupied it during the night. Castillo, when morning broke, left the palace because of a rumored approach of hostile forces, and General Alvarado a Villa follower, occupied the government offices. Toward noon heavy firing on several streets leading to the palace announced the second approach of Carranza men. This firing lasted all forenoon and when it ceased the inhabitants were in doubt as to whether the forces of Villa, Zapata or Carranza held the capital of the republic.

There will be a total of six games played, two each day being scheduled.

The first day, the teams will draw lots to see which teams each shall contest with. On the second day the two winning teams will clash, and the two losing teams will contest.

If any ties result such ties will probably be played off the fourth day or August 21.

The tournament is expected to draw large crowds from over the entire country and southern Iowa, as the four teams contesting, are considered the strongest in this county and Taylor county, Iowa.

DEFER DRAINAGE BOARD MEET

Conference to Discuss Resumption of Dredge Work on 102 Will Be Held Saturday.

The special meeting of the 102 river drainage district board, to have been held at the court house here this morning, has been postponed until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon on account of members of the board being now busy haying and otherwise engaged in urgent farm work.

The express purpose of the meeting is to determine what means can best be used in righting and repairing the dredge boat, recently overturned and damaged by the flood waters. The owners of the dredge boat—the Marlon Steam Shovel Company of Marion, O.—will probably be asked to pay all or part of the costs of repairing the dredge.

FEDS IN TOURNEY

MARYVILLE TEAM TO CONTEST FOR PART OF $350 AWARD.

TO BE HELD AUG. 18-20

Clearmont, Hopkins and Bedford Also to Compete in Tournament at Hopkins—Allow 3 "Extras."

A three-days tournament which the Maryville Federals and the teams of Hopkins, Clearmont and Bedford, Ia., will enter for four prizes aggregating $350, is to be held in Hopkins August 18, 19 and 20, according to announcement made today. No team entering the tourney may employ more than three players, not regularly connected with the team.

This will allow the Federals to maintain Richardson and Willey and perhaps Rapp, and yet employ three others if necessary. Cleve Funk, manager, says he does not intend to engage any more outside aid or at least only one or two.

The prizes offered are as follows: first, $125; second, $100; third, $75; fourth $50. The umpire for the games has not yet been announced, but Keck of this city, may be engaged for some of the games.

There will be a total of six games played, two each day being scheduled. The first day, the teams will draw lots to see which teams each shall contest with. On the second day the two winning teams will clash, and the two losing teams will contest.

If any ties result such ties will probably be played off the fourth day or August 21.

The tournament is expected to draw large crowds from over the entire country and southern Iowa, as the four teams contesting, are considered the strongest in this county and Taylor county, Iowa.

EXPECT FAST GAME THURSDAY

Maryville Boosters Prepare to Beat Barnard Nine at Normal—Lost Other Time.

One of the fastest games of the season at the Normal grounds, is promised and anticipated tomorrow afternoon when the Maryville Boosters go against the strong Barnard M. W. A. baseball nine for the second time this season. The game will begin at 4 o'clock, so that persons attending the afternoon chautauqua program, may also attend the ball game, Walter Wray, manager, announces.

In the initial game played this year by the Boosters, they went down to defeat at the hands of the Barnard team by a score of 1 to 3, after a close game.

The Barnard team will line up as follows according to announcement made today from Barnard: Thompson, p; McKee, c; Van Meter, 1st; Adams, 2b; Duke, 3b; Halney, ss; Sharp, Cundiff, McHaffey and Badger, outfielders.

Wakeman will pitch and Richardson, Federal catcher, will receive for the Boosters in the game tomorrow. Goldie Rapp, recently released from St. Joseph who played so ably with the Federals last Sunday, will play third base, while Rudy, who played center field for the Tip Tops of St. Joseph here Sunday, will probably take that position in the game here tomorrow.

The Booster line up will be: Wakeman, p; Richardson, c; Wray, 1b; Still, 2b; Rapp, 3b; Palfreyman, ss; Vanderloot, lf; Rudy or Scott, cf; Moore, rf.

SEE THE METEORIC SHOWERS

No!, Then Look Again Tonight to Witness Shooting Stars.

It didn't rain moisture last night in Maryville, but it did rain something not quite so plentiful and less often seen. For both Monday night and last night, a meteoric display could be plainly observed in the skies at several periods in the night.

The meteors are caused by the interception of the sun's orbit by that of the earth, the sun having been in total eclipse of the earth yesterday in the lower eastern hemisphere.

The shower of meteors is scheduled to continue tonight though in a less marked degree.

FAIR TO H-LP CLUB WOMEN

Manager Offers Percentage of Day's Gate Receipts to Support of Rest Room.

The managers of the county fair have inaugurated a "rest room" day during fair week from August 30 to September 4, and on that day will give a percentage of the gate receipts to the Federation of Women's club, to be used in the maintenance of the women's public rest rooms.

The day has not yet been designated but it will probably be either Monday or Tuesday. A special campaign will be made by the women of the city for attendance on that day and every effort made to swell the fund which has been tendered them by the fair managers.

The salary of the rest room matron is being paid by the club women of the city and the money received at the fair will be used for that purpose.

This matter will be taken up by the county court next year but until that time, the club women have assumed the expense.

The women have paid the entire upkeep of the room since they were opened in August, 1914, and also furnished the quarters ready for use.

Mrs. Ed G. Orear and Mrs. G. H. Colbert are the publicity committee for "rest room" day.

According to a late news item, Gov. Major is taking another vacation at French Lick Springs, Indiana.

The war is now costing $30,000 a minute. If you have a mathematical turn of mind, you can figure out what the cost will be for another year.

Judge Landis is one federal judge who does things according to what he believes the case justifies regardless of precedents, etiquette or the station of the parties affected.

In the old days the Platte Purchase played a prominent part in the affairs of the state and nation. It furnished governors, United States senators, federal judges and various other officials. Judge Atchison of Platte county, as president pro tem of the United States Senate, was President of the United States for one day. Of late years other sections of the state seem to have been more aggressive in politics or to have co-operated to better advantage and have shaken down the big plums. It is getting about time for Northwest Missouri to make herself felt again.

One reason offered for a raise in passenger rates on railroads is that the companies have lost money on the dining car service. As a rule the man who patronizes the diner feels that he could start a restaurant with the price of a meal, yet they may be losing money. But do the ninety and nine passengers who do not patronize the diner want to be assessed for the benefit of the one who does?

BUTTERMILK IS A SAFE DRINK.

The popularity of buttermilk as a food and a beverage is attested by its widespread sale. Any drink which can succeed in invading the precincts of the saloon and compete for sale, as buttermilk now does, side by side with alcoholic beverages deserves attention. The plan of allowing milk to undergo fermentation of such a character that the products are not unpleasant or unwholesome for human consumption, yet serve as preservatives to prevent undesirable types of decomposition, is not new. The fermentation product chiefly depended on in such cases is lactic acid, although, in certain types, alcoholic fermentation may also be in evidence.

Buttermilk belongs to the acid type; it usually contains from 0.6 to 0.9 per cent of acid. Strictly speaking, buttermilk is a by-product of butter-making; but with the development of the milk industries, the demand for buttermilk has frequently been met by fermenting the skim or separator milk which remains as a by-product of the cream trade. The fermented product is not literally buttermilk, but it may be indistinguishable from the latter in composition and properties.

The use of these fermented milk products has been favored, not alone for their intrinsic food value, but also for accessory reasons. The specific fermentation products have been reputed to have a "tonic" action in the digestive tract. Special virtues have been attributed to the lactic acid bacteria, particularly in relation to putrefactive changes in the alimentary tract.

Aside from any alleged therapeutic virtues, there can be no doubt of the nutrient value of the beverages. With the growing attention devoted to the bacteria which milk may harbor, and the recognition of the dangers which they may entail, it is not strange that buttermilk also should demand bacteriologic consideration. Heinemann, of the Department of Bacteriology and Hygiene at the University of Chicago, has demonstrated that the presence of lactic acid in milk will destroy the germs of dysentery, typhoid, diphtheria and cholera.

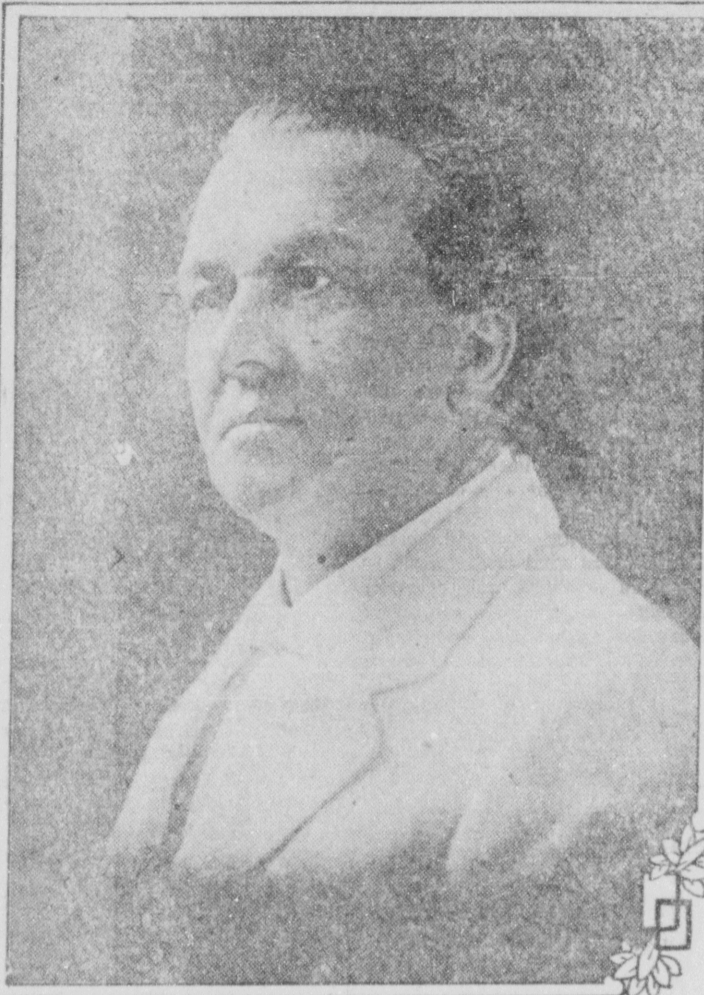

The slower milk sours, the greater is the danger of disease germs surviving. Acids other than lactic acid are frequently present in buttermilk. This beverage, Heinemann reminds us, should therefore be looked on with suspicion, especially is heavily polluted, unless it has been prepared from pasteurized milk.

There is, however, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, a remnant of satisfaction to all lovers of the fermented product to learn that the chances of buttermilk becoming a carrier of infection are small.

THE PALM BEACH SUIT.

"Ye who listen with credulity to the whispers of fancy, and pursue with eagerness the phantoms of hope—who expect that age will perform the promises of youth, and that the deficiencies of the present day will be supplied by the morrow—attend to the history of Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia." So wrote the Jovian pen of Dr. Samuel Johnson nearly two centuries ago. Now let the owner of a Palm Beach suit apply this philosophy of futurity to his own case.

The Palm Beach suit was born of a great masculine desire. If it was not calculated to fill an aching void, it was designed to supply the omissions of a long felt want. It was a pressing want, with the accent on the pressing, and too often on the want. Ever since troglodytic man emerged from savagery and cultivated a taste for clothes, he has striven ever onward and upward toward an elusive goal. His first covering of sabertooth tiger skin was supplanted in time by tanned deer pelts, and in the process of sartorial evolution he progressed through many transformations until he reached the zenith of outward glory at the sybaritic court of the first Napoleon. Here in the fluffiest of ruffles and the creamiest of laces he daintily wafted a puff of snuff to his delicate nostrils with an exquisite grace not remotely suggesting the more primitive feat of eating green corn on the cob.

But man did not want to be beautiful. He wanted to be comfortable. In matters of dress he kept on evolving, changing, searching and yearning. And in this great desire he not only listened "with credulity to the whispers of fancy" but he pursued "with eagerness the phantoms of hope," and always expecting that at the turn of the road he would find the "deficiencies of the present day would be supplied by the morrow." Improvements came gradually. Along the highway of man's clothing aspirations are strewn the wreckage of tunics, jack boots, ruffs, gauntlets, woolen socks, starched shirts and many other discarded things. We trace the unfulfilling instinct of comfort. In recent years progress has been more rapid. At last, after eons of thralldom to the hard, hot and unyielding fabrics which convention has decreed for summer covering, the seeker raised his eyes and beheld the apotheosis of his dreams—the Palm Beach suit!

There have been other uncertain experiments with sheer fabrics for masculine outer garments. There have been tentative but futile efforts to entice men with linen suits and the "seersucker" of unalloyed memory. And though these efforts failed they were not without purpose, for they were leading up to the ultimate vestment. The Palm Beach suit came into sudden and surprising effluence. Out of the dull and prosaic packing-cases of the merchants there burst a myriad of cool, enticing, satisfying Palm Beach creations transforming men into giddy butterflies bursting as it were from a single chrysalis.

The Palm Beach is not perfection,

but it marks a mighty step toward the attainment of masculine comfort in warm weather. At best, in this erratic climate, it can serve only as an auxiliary resource. He who temers the wind to the shorn lamb considered not the precarious position of the man in the Palm Beach. It requires constant and unremitting attention, and the wearer is never free from heavy and depressing anxieties lest a passing automobile defile the corruscating perfection of his apparel, or that the feverish child in the next car seat drop an all-day sucker on an immaculate knee. Best of all, perhaps, is the fact that the Palm Beach is so cheap the wearer may hope to pay for it before it is worn out. And that, after all, is the great, central thought.—Kansas City Journal.

Kansas Produces Much Coal.

The production of coal in Kansas in 1914 amounted to 6,824,068 short tons, according to a statement just made public by the United States Geological Survey, with a value at the mines of $11,181,687. This is a decrease of 5 per cent in value from the output of 1913. In other respects, however, the year is reported to have been satisfactory to the coal men, no serious strikes or flooding of pits having interfered with coal mining in the state during the year.

Some improvement in the dangerous practice of shooting from the solid is shown for Kansas, the coal mined by this method in 1914 being 77.3 per cent of the total output as compared with 80.5 per cent in 1913. The coal reported as mined by hand was 1,127,523 tons.

Not much progress was made in the state in machine mining, the quantity of coal so produced in 1914 having been less than 40,000 tons. A small percentage of the product (21,295 tons) was washed, yielding 15,236 tons of cleaned coal and 5,069 tons of refuse.

The number of men employed in the coal mines of Kansas in 1914 was 12,413, and they worked an average of 191 days, against 12,479 men for an average of 197 days in 1913. The average production per man in 1914 was 550 tons and 2.88 tons for each working day.

The Bureau of Mines reported 31 fatal accidents in Kansas in 1914, as compared with 28 in 1913.

Many of the smaller city schools are adopting progressive measures in advance of the larger city systems. Hays City, Kan., has a free dental clinic, free medical inspection, social center, community music, supervised playgrounds, and organized athletics. State and municipality have gone in partnership in Hays City; the entire city-school system has been turned over to the Fort Hays Kansas state normal school for use as a "pedagogical laboratory."

MARYVILLE — MISSOURI

The Missouri River.

The Missouri river proper is formed in southwestern Montana by the junction of three strong mountain streams which were discovered by Lewis and Clark in 1806 and were named by them Jefferson, Madison and Gallatin rivers. Of these three Jefferson river drains the largest area and is considered the continuation of the main stream.

Western Montana is mountainous and affords many excellent water-power sites. Among the principal tributaries of the Missouri are the Marias, Musselshell, Yellowstone, Cheyenne, Platte and Kansas. The western part of the basin is in the arid belt and the eastern part is in the semiarid and humid regions.

Ten states of the Union are drained in part by Missouri river. Rising at the Red Rock Lakes, at an elevation of 6,700 feet above sea level, the Missouri descends through the Rocky Mountains and emerges onto the broad prairie lands a few miles below the city of Great Falls, Mont.

Within 10 miles of Great Falls there are five great drops of the river and an aggregate fall of 612 feet. From this point it is accounted a navigable stream with an easy grade, and in passing through the Dakotas and along the borders of Nebraska, Kansas, and Iowa it receives the flow of great tributaries so that as it crosses the State of Missouri and joins the Mississippi a short distance above St. Louis it becomes one of the large rivers of the world. Its total drainage area is about 492,000 square miles in extent.

SOUTH AFRICA IS LAND OF PROMISE

British See Great Possibilities In Immense Territory.

MINERAL RESOURCES RICH.

Diamond Fields Form Treasure House and Big Quantities of Precious "Stones of Fire" Still Lie In Sands of Namib—Copper and Copper Ores In Increasing Quantities.

Cape Town, South Africa.—Much speculation has been indulged in as to the value as a possession of the immense territory of German southwest Africa, wrested by the Union of South Africa forces, under General Botha, from the Germans, who had occupied it since May, 1883. Six times the size of England, being about 322,450 square miles in area and including Ovamboland, Damaraland and Great Namaqualand and sparsely populated, it has been described as a wilderness, with a fertile tract only here and there.

A South African authority described recently in the Cape Times its dominant physical features as follows: "A slowly rising, sandy coast belt; a high interior plateau, broken by isolated mountain ranges and stony kopjes, and a gently falling eastern strip of sandy country which merges in the level expanse of the Kalahari desert. The average height of the uplands is about 5,000 feet. The climate on the whole is healthful and eminently suited for Europeans, though malarial fever is prevalent in the subtropical north. Before the war it supported a white population of 14,820 people, with some 250,000 natives."

The territory's three great natural sources of wealth are minerals, pasture land and agricultural land. Says the authority above quoted: "The mineral wealth has been the most considerable source of prosperity since 1908, and it is certain to be an important factor in the future development of the country. The diamond fields form a rich treasure house, and immense quantities of the precious 'stones of fire' still lie in the sands of the Namib. The fields extend from Conception bay (100 miles south of Swakopmund) to Angra's Juntas, a distance of about 200 miles, but they are intersected in many places by hills and ridges and tracts of worthless sand. The various producing companies, the great majority of which are German, hold a fifty years' lease from the German Colonial company, and together before the war broke out they employed about 5,000 natives and colored men. From 1908 to the end of 1913 gems to the value of $35,522,000 had been recovered.

"How long will these fields last? The experts differ, as owing to the vast extent of the country over which the diamondiferous gravel is scattered and the varying depths of the deposits it is extremely difficult to estimate the life of the fields. The period has been variously put at eight, fifteen and twenty years. New deposits may be discovered, although extensive prospecting operations have not resulted in any finds for some time. Volcanic 'pipes' containing the well known Kimberlite have been found in the Gibeon, Bethany and Keetmanshoop districts, but careful tests have shown them to be barren of diamonds."

Next to the diamond fields the copper mines rank in importance. The value of the copper exported in 1913 was $1,082,180. In the opinion of experts there is no doubt that the country will supply copper and copper ores in increasing quantities for many years to come.

Prospecting work has been done in connection with gold, tin, iron, lead, sulphur, etc., but the results have been somewhat disappointing, although immense deposits of iron and tin ores are known to exist. A seam of coal has been found, and the Germans had begun to exploit immense layers of white and colored marble of excellent quality. The second source of wealth in the territory is the pasture land. Dr. William Macdonald, the South African agricultural expert, who visited the colony a couple of years ago, described it as a land of enormous agricultural possibilities, destined to become one of the finest ranch countries in the world.

LAUNCH BIG BLOW AGAINST TURKS

Allies Make Concerted Effort to Force Dardanelles.

SUCCESSES ARE REPORTED.

News For Some Time From Peninsula Has Been Growing More Cheering to England—Only Way to Rescue Hard-Pressed Russians.

London, Aug. 11.—The commencement of new and greater efforts to force the Dardanelles and thus bring succor to the Russians, who are still being hard pressed by the Austro-Germans in eastern Poland and the Baltic provinces, and at the same time to influence the Balkan states, is a feature of the war news.

For some time the news from the Dardanelles from the British standpoint has been more cheerful. While no details of the operations there have been given out, the public has been allowed to learn that the hope for a successful issue in the fighting on the Turkish peninsula was brighter.

A Concerted Attempt.
The renewed attempt against the Turkish positions which apparently is in full swing, seems to be a concerted one. Attacks are being made at the tip of the peninsula, along the Krithia road, where a gain of 200 yards on a front of 300 yards has been made and at Sari Bair, where an important crest has been occupied, according to General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander in chief of the British forces.

Elsewhere General Hamilton's report continues, "a fresh landing has been successfully effected and considerable progress made." This landing evidently was a surprise to the Turks, as 630 prisoners, a number of guns and a quantity of material are declared to have been taken by the British forces.

Lomza Taken by Teuton Invaders.
Except in the region of Riga, where the Germans evidently have been checked, the German and Austrian hosts are still moving forward against the Russians in their efforts to drive them from the Baltic provinces and Poland.

Their progress is not being made unhindered, however, for the Muscovites continue to fight them viciously at various points in rear guard battles. Lomza, the Russian stronghold on the Narva, in the government of Lomza, has been captured, the fortress of Kovno is being threatened and Vilna, capital of the government of the same name and which lies some 225 miles northeast of Warsaw, is being evacuated by the civilian population.

Sir John French, commander in chief of the British forces in France and Belgium, in a report given out by the official press bureau, says the British troops have slightly withdrawn from their line south of Ypres, near Ypres, but have consolidated the village of Hooge.

ZEPPELINS KILL NINE WOMEN

Squadron of German Airships Make Raid on British Coast.

London, Aug. 11.—The official press bureau issued the following statement: "A squadron of hostile airships visited the east coast between the hours of 8:30 p. m. and 12:30 a. m. Some fires were caused by the dropping of incendiary bombs, but these were quickly extinguished.

"The following casualties have been reported: Killed, one man, nine women and four children; wounded, five men, seven women and two children. "One Zeppelin was seriously damaged by the gunfire of the land defenses and was reported being towed into Ostend. It has since been subjected to continued attacks by aircraft from Dunkirk and has been under heavy fire and it is now reported that after having its back broken and its rear compartment damaged it was completely destroyed by the explosion. "The night was extremely dark and was accompanied by thick fog in places, which rendered night flying by aeroplane very difficult. It is regretted that Flight Lieutenant R. Lord, which was one of the pilots sent up to engage the enemy, was killed on landing in the dark."

Harry Thaw in Omaha.

AMERICA REJECTS AUSTRIA'S VIEWS

Declares Neutrality Not Violated by Arms Trade.

INSISTS ON RIGHT TO SHIP

United States Sends Note to Vienna Ambassador Penfield Will Probably Present it to Foreign Office Tomorrow—Couched in Friendly Tone.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The United States government dispatched to Vienna a reply rejecting the Austro-Hungarian views recently set forth in a note contending that the great scale on which war munitions are being exported from America to enemies of the Germanic allies "is not in conformance with the definition of neutrality."

The note was cabled to Ambassador Penfield, who probably will present it to the Vienna foreign office tomorrow. Though framed in diplomatic language and entirely friendly in tone, the reply is understood to repudiate flatly the suggestion that the United States has permitted violations of neutrality and rests firmly upon the right of American exporters to send war supplies to belligerents able to purchase and receive them.

The United States always has held that this is an unquestioned right under international law and high officials have pointed out that to prevent such shipments to one country because another was not in a position to receive them would be in itself a violation of neutrality. Precedents also have been recalled where in previous wars Germany and Austria imported arms extensively. The Austro-Hungarian note, handed to Ambassador Penfield on June 29, was a lengthy document setting forth the views of that government and suggesting that the United States might redress the state of things complained of by informing the owners of Austria-Hungary that the supply of food stuffs and war material to them would be suspended unless legitimate trade in these articles between America and neutral countries were permitted. According to Berlin dispatches, this complaint was sent after a conference between the Austro-Hungarian and German foreign offices. Similar notes it was said, soon would be sent to the United States by Germany and Turkey.

One Battleship to Vera Cruz.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Secretary Lansing announced that only one war ship would be sent to Vera Cruz and that it was going to relieve whatever ship is used for transportation of the Brazilian and Guatemalan ministers. Secretary Lansing denied flatly that military or naval expeditions were being prepared.

Wells More Than a Mile Deep.

The deepest well in the world is in Upper Silesia, in the German Empire. It is a diamond-drill hole in a coal field and is 7,350 feet deep. COUNTY EXHIBITS ARE TO BE FEATURED AT THE MISSOURI STATE FAIR THIS YEAR.

Far famed for its productions of the orchard and garden as well as the feed lot and field, Missouri, through its State Fair is seeking this year to exploit the state by counties and to that end each county is being solicited to send an exhibit of the best it grows to be exhibited at Sedalia September 25 to October 2, the State Fair week. In the past several counties have made excellent displays of fruit and grains such as are shown in the illustrations, this exhibit being from Lincoln county and put on at Sedalia as one of the best showings in fruit production that has ever been sent to the state fair. Every effort is being made again this year to secure county exhibits for the 1915 exposition.

MISSOURI AND MULES ARE SYNONYMOUS AND INSEPARABLE.

Missouri State Fair without mules would be a travesty on the fame of Missouri, as the home of the best mules the world knows of. Every year the best of these animals are seen at Sedalia in competition with one another. No single feature at the Missouri State Fair from September 25 to October 2 this fall, unless it is the saddle horse classes, will attract more attention than the mule section.

Pennsylvania Increases Output.

The output of petroleum in Pennsylvania in 1914, which amounted to 8,170,335 barrels, registered an increase of 253,033 barrels over the state's production in 1913, according to a statement just made public by the United States Geological Survey in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Topographic and Geologic Survey Commission. This notable increase comes from a state whole oil production prior to 1913 has shown a fairly steady decline of 5 or 6 per cent a year for 14 years or more.

The market price of petroleum in Pennsylvania averaged $1.906 a barrel at the wells in 1914. Except for 1913 when the yearly average was $2.487, this price exceeds that received for the state's product in any single year since 1877. The value of Pennsylvania's oil production in 1914 amounted to $15,573,822. Although disclosing a net increase of $4,116,680 below the amount received for the 1913 production, this total exceeds the value of any single year's output since 1908.

Pennsylvania has been a consistent and reliable factor in the petroleum industry since 1859.
